Day 1

Split › Stari Grad Bay, Hvar

22 nm	4h22m sailing	Anchorage	Day 1 of 5

Overnight Stari Grad Bay, Hvar

One of the best-protected bays on the Dalmatian coast. UNESCO old town a 10-min walk. Excellent holding ground. The Pakleni Islands just outside are perfect for a morning swim stop.

Swimming & Beach Beach Stop

Palmižana Cove, Pakleni Islands — turquoise water, beach bar, pine trees

Lunch & Dinner Food

Restaurant Meneghello, Palmižana — fresh seafood, arrive by dinghy

Captain's Notes Notes

Stop at Palmižana before arriving Stari Grad — swim, lunch, then easy afternoon sail in. Hvar Town is 8nm if you prefer nightlife over quiet.

Day 2

Stari Grad, Hvar › Vis Town / Komiža

18 nm	3h30m sailing	Anchorage	Day 2 of 5

Overnight Vis Town / Komiža

Croatia's most remote island — far from mass tourism, unspoilt, exceptional food. Anchor off Vis Town or head to Komiža on the west side for more atmosphere and the famous lobster restaurant.

Swimming & Beach Beach Stop

Stiniva Cove — one of the most beautiful beaches in the Med, sea access only

Lunch & Dinner Food

Konoba Jastožera, Komiža — world-famous lobster restaurant in a cave. Book ahead!

Captain's Notes Notes

Arrive at Stiniva early — crowded after 10am. Anchor off and swim in. Optional: Blue Cave at Biševo island — unforgettable.

Day 3

Vis Town › Korčula Old Town

21 nm	4h11m sailing	Marina / Town Quay	Day 3 of 5

Overnight Korčula Old Town

Medieval walled city, birthplace of Marco Polo. Town quay puts you right at the Venetian gates. Budget around 150-200 EUR. Worth every cent — evening in the old town is magical.

Swimming & Beach Beach Stop

Lumbarda sandy beach — 5nm east of Korčula, rare sandy beach in this area

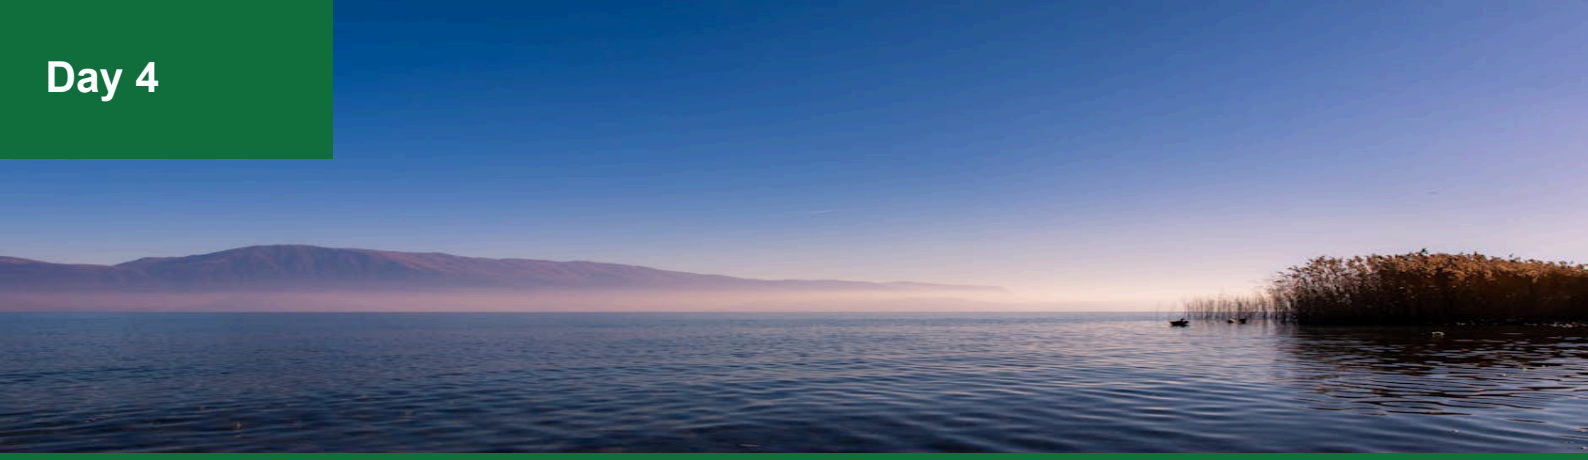
Lunch & Dinner Food

LD Restaurant Korčula — the best table on the island. Reserve a day ahead.

Captain's Notes Notes

Watch for Bora (NE wind) in Pelješac channel. If forecast is strong, take the south channel via Žrnovo.

Day 4



Korčula Old Town › Polače Bay, Mljet

21 nm	4h11m sailing	Anchorage	Day 4 of 5

Overnight Polače Bay, Mljet

One of Croatia's finest anchorages — deeply sheltered, crystal-clear water, ancient Roman palace ruins on shore. Mljet National Park is a short walk with extraordinary saltwater lakes and a 12th-century island monastery.

Swimming & Beach Beach Stop

Mljet National Park saltwater lakes — warm, calm, utterly unique

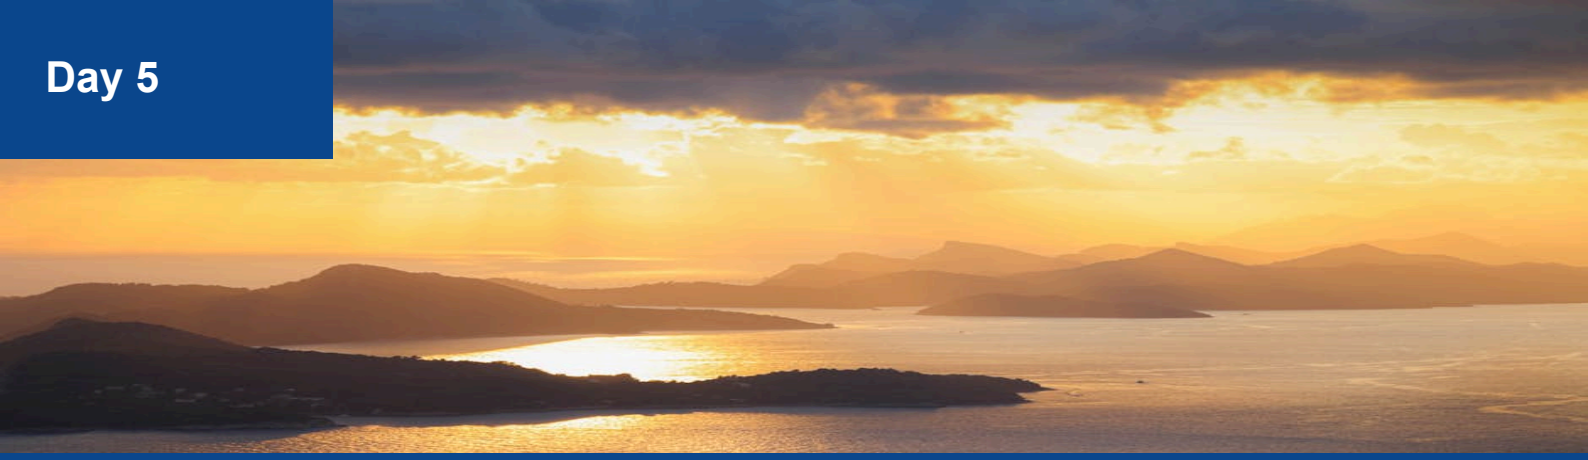
Lunch & Dinner Food

Konoba Stermasi, Polače — excellent lamb and fish, local family taverna

Captain's Notes Notes

National Park entry ~100 HRK/person but the lakes are extraordinary. Rent bikes at the gate. Sunset over Polače bay is exceptional.

Day 5



Polače Bay, Mljet › Šipanska Luka, Šipan Island

24 nm	4h49m sailing	Anchorage	Day 5 of 5

Overnight Šipanska Luka, Šipan Island

Largest Elaphiti island — no cars, peaceful, noble summer villas from the Dubrovnik Republic era. Perfect last night before the city. Good holding in the bay.

Swimming & Beach Beach Stop

Lopud Island sandy beach (Šunj) — detour 3nm south, finest sandy beach near Dubrovnik

Lunch & Dinner Food

Obala Restaurant, Šipanska Luka — grilled fish and local wine on the waterfront

Captain's Notes Notes

Stop at Lopud for lunch and swimming on the way — Šunj beach is exceptional. Arrive Dubrovnik fresh next morning after a short 8nm sail.
